The FIR said that the accused kept the victim under 'digital arrest' from July 5 to July 18 by accusing him of involvement in money laundering. They claimed his Aadhaar card had been used to open a bank account linked to money laundering and told him he was under investigation in connection with a Nareesh Goyal case. The accused instructed him to transfer his mutual funds, fixed deposits and bank deposits to their accounts.

The GRP said that it received a complaint from a traveller on the Bengaluru-Jodhpur Express in March. The complainant alleged that when the train reached Vasai Road, the accused brandished a revolver and snatched his bag containing ₹1.5 lakh. Subsequently, Mumbai Railway Police Commissioner Rakesh Kalasagar ordered a probe.

The GRP found that four other persons were allegedly involved in the crime. Police said the main accused, Pandey, had switched off his mobile phone, making it difficult to trace him. But after tracking down his friends and gathering technical intelligence, the police arrested Pandey on July 18.
