RBI backs call for crypto ban

Tax officials flag evasion risks

THE RESERVE BANK of India (RBI) has reasserted a call for a cryptocurrency policy "leaning towards prohibition," while the country's tax department warned that trading via offshore exchanges is hard to track, government documents reviewed by Reuters showed. The documents reveal a preference among key Indian agencies to use tighter curbs on virtual digital assets, even though the government has yet to adopt a policy to ban or regulate them.

India has allowed cryptocurrencies to exist in a grey zone since a court in 2018 struck down RBI policies that effectively banned them. A 2021 draft legislation to ban private cryptocurrencies was never introduced in Parliament, and a discussion paper on the matter has been deferred repeatedly.

The Centre has delayed implementing a formal policy on virtual assets, saying any plan should balance innovation with risk management while protecting monetary sovereignty, and financial stability. —REUTERS

Sebi amends registration fee rule for FPIs

Directs payment in rupee terms

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, July 8

MARKETS REGULATOR SEBI has replaced the existing US dollar-denominated registration fee for Foreign Portfolio Investors (FPIs) with a rupee-based fee structure. To implement the change, the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Sebi) has amended the rules governing FPIs. The revised provisions will come into effect after six months, Sebi said in its notification dated July 3.

As per the notification, the regulator has revised the registration fee for Category-I FPIs from $2,500 to ₹2.3 lakh. Similarly, registration fee for FPIs belonging to Category II has been revised from $250 to ₹23,000. The regulator has also revised the application fee for seeking general relaxations or exemptions from strict enforcement of regulations from $1,000 to ₹90,000 in eligible foreign exchange equivalent. The markets watchdog has also updated the common application form used for FPI registration.

It has mandated including the applicant's date of birth or date of incorporation in the common application form to facilitate Permanent Account Number (PAN) allotment.

Additionally, Designated Depository Participants (DDPs) must remit the collected registration fees to Sebi within five working days of granting registration.

"Every designated depository participant shall remit the fees collected from the foreign portfolio investors in INR to the Board in the case of initial registration, within five working days from the date of grant of certificate of registration to the foreign portfolio investor, along with the details in the format, as may be specified from time to time," Sebi said.

REVISED PROVISIONS

- To implement the change, the Securities and Exchange Board of India has amended the rules governing FPIs
- The revised provisions will come into effect after six months
- The regulator has also revised the application fee for seeking general relaxations from strict enforcement of regulations

- Every designated depository participant shall remit the fees collected FPIs in INR to the Board in case of initial registration, within five working days, said Sebi

Trump torpedoes ceasefire

THE ATTACKS FURTHER undermined a shaky ceasefire agreement and dented hopes of turning the memorandum of understanding signed on June 17 into a permanent peace deal to end the war, which began with US-Israeli air strikes on Iran on February 28.

"If we make a deal with Iran I'm not sure that will stick,""Trump said, "because I found them to be very dishonourable people." But Trump did not explicitly say Washington would return to full-fledged war and it was not immediately clear whether or not the negotiations on reaching a permanent deal would continue.

Talks between the US and Iran resumed last week after the two countries traded strikes. But the negotiations were suspended again as Iran conducts a weeklong mass funeral for the late Supreme Leader Ali Khamenei, who was assassinated on the first day of the conflict. Trump's remarks came shortly after the US launched a fresh wave of strikes against Iran and revoked a waiver that allowed the sale of Iranian oil.

The US Central Command said more than 60 small boats used by the IRGC were among the targets hit in an operation it said was intended to impose a heavy cost on Iran for strikes on shipping in violation of the ceasefire.

Trump confirmed ?the US had attacked Iran's main oil hub of Kharg Island in its latest strikes and, repeating a warning that US forces could take over the island, said: "They may hit it again tonight."

Iran threatened to close the Strait of Hormuz if struck, according to state broadcaster on Wednesday. The speaker of Iran's parliament, Mohammad Bagher Ghalibaf, issued a warning to the US. "The era of bullying and extortion is over," he said in a post on X. "It leads nowhere. We don't fold." Deputy Foreign Minister Kazem Gharibabadi vowed "decisive actions" in response.

Asked before a NATO summit in Turkey whether the memorandum of understanding was over, Trump said: "It's a very interesting question. To me, I think it's over. I don't want to deal with them."

"They're scum. They're sick people. They're led by sick people," he told reporters in Ankara. "As far as I'm concerned, it's just a waste of time dealing with them," he said, before adding: "Now, I'll let our wonderful negotiators keep talking if they want, but I don't see it. I don't like these people, you know that."

"I'll give a little warning: We're going to hit them hard tonight," Trump told reporters.

The latest attacks have heightened safety and security concerns around Hormuz, with shipping data showing at least four oil and gas tankers had turned back rather than try to transit the waterway

US waiver blow may stall...

ANOTHER OFFICIAL SAID near-term availability was not a concern. "Crude requirements through August have already been tied up, and LPG supplies have also been secured till next month," the official said.

The latest escalation comes when the market was turning favourable for buyers, with Russia offering discounts of around $5 per barrel and Saudi Aramco announcing an $11 price cut for Asian buyers for August.

After US President Donald Trump threatened fresh strikes against Iran on Wednesday, Brent crude futures gained $5.93, or 8%, to $80.09 a barrel, the highest since June 22. US West Texas Intermediate (WTI) crude futures rose by $5.25, or 7.5%, to $75.69 a barrel, also the highest in over two weeks.

Both benchmarks rose about 3% on Tuesday after the US revoked the general licence authorising the sale of Iranian crude. The US had issued a 60-day waiver on June 22, permitting the production, sale and transport of Iranian crude and petroleum products. The latest revocation has effectively closed that window. The renewed tensions have again put the Strait of Hormuz at the centre of global energy markets.

About 20-25% of India's crude imports currently pass through the Hormuz, down from 60-70% before the conflict began on February 28, as refiners diversified supplies towards Russia, the US, Venezuela, West Africa and other producers.

The share of Dubai-Oman sour crude in the Indian crude basket has fallen to 20.60%, the lowest since comparable PPAC data became available in 2001, while Brent-linked sweet crude now accounts for 79.40%, up from 71.02% in June, 70% in May and 61.02% in April.

C Udai Bhaskar, director, Society for Policy Studies, said any escalation in West Asia would keep oil markets, refiners, insurers and the wider energy ecosystem on edge, with renewed US-Iran hostilities and sanctions adding to uncertainty for the region and India.

"India will be deeply concerned if ship movement through the Strait of Hormuz is disrupted again. It would not only raise the import bill but also feed into household anxiety over the availability and price of cooking gas cylinders," he said.

Oil marketing company stocks fell on the BSE, with HPCL down 4.60%, IOC down 3.51% and BPCL down 3.20%.

The latest escalation comes when the market was turning favourable for buyers

Iran threatened to close the Strait of Hormuz if struck, according to state broadcaster on Wednesday. The speaker of Iran's parliament, Mohammad Bagher Ghalibaf, issued a warning to the US. "The era of bullying and extortion is over," he said in a post on X. "It leads nowhere. We don't fold." Deputy Foreign Minister Kazem Gharibabadi vowed "decisive actions" in response.

Asked before a NATO summit in Turkey whether the memorandum of understanding was over, Trump said: "It's a very interesting question. To me, I think it's over. I don't want to deal with them."

"They're scum. They're sick people. They're led by sick people," he told reporters in Ankara. "As far as I'm concerned, it's just a waste of time dealing with them," he said, before adding: "Now, I'll let our wonderful negotiators keep talking if they want, but I don't see it. I don't like these people, you know that."

"I'll give a little warning: We're going to hit them hard tonight," Trump told reporters.

The latest attacks have heightened safety and security concerns around Hormuz, with shipping data showing at least four oil and gas tankers had turned back rather than try to transit the waterway

US waiver blow may stall...

ANOTHER OFFICIAL SAID near-term availability was not a concern. "Crude requirements through August have already been tied up, and LPG supplies have also been secured till next month," the official said.

The latest escalation comes when the market was turning favourable for buyers, with Russia offering discounts of around $5 per barrel and Saudi Aramco announcing an $11 price cut for Asian buyers for August.

After US President Donald Trump threatened fresh strikes against Iran on Wednesday, Brent crude futures gained $5.93, or 8%, to $80.09 a barrel, the highest since June 22. US West Texas Intermediate (WTI) crude futures rose by $5.25, or 7.5%, to $75.69 a barrel, also the highest in over two weeks.

Both benchmarks rose about 3% on Tuesday after the US revoked the general licence authorising the sale of Iranian crude. The US had issued a 60-day waiver on June 22, permitting the production, sale and transport of Iranian crude and petroleum products. The latest revocation has effectively closed that window. The renewed tensions have again put the Strait of Hormuz at the centre of global energy markets.

About 20-25% of India's crude imports currently pass through the Hormuz, down from 60-70% before the conflict began on February 28, as refiners diversified supplies towards Russia, the US, Venezuela, West Africa and other producers.

The share of Dubai-Oman sour crude in the Indian crude basket has fallen to 20.60%, the lowest since comparable PPAC data became available in 2001, while Brent-linked sweet crude now accounts for 79.40%, up from 71.02% in June, 70% in May and 61.02% in April.

C Udai Bhaskar, director, Society for Policy Studies, said any escalation in West Asia would keep oil markets, refiners, insurers and the wider energy ecosystem on edge, with renewed US-Iran hostilities and sanctions adding to uncertainty for the region and India.

"India will be deeply concerned if ship movement through the Strait of Hormuz is disrupted again. It would not only raise the import bill but also feed into household anxiety over the availability and price of cooking gas cylinders," he said.

Oil marketing company stocks fell on the BSE, with HPCL down 4.60%, IOC down 3.51% and BPCL down 3.20%.

The latest escalation comes when the market was turning favourable for buyers
