Mehta vs Sarnaik 7.0: Political Face-Off Over Ghodbunder Road Deepens; BJP Announces Road Blockade on August 10

BJP MLA Narendra Mehta accuses Transport Minister Pratap Sarnaik of misleading the public over pothole-ridden roads, challenges him on pending RTO project

Mira-Bhayandar, Najmul Hasan Rizvi:

The political war over the deteriorating condition of roads in Mira-Bhayandar has intensified once again, with BJP MLA Narendra Mehta launching a fresh attack on Maharashtra Transport Minister PratapSarnaik over the condition of the Ghodbunder Road and announcing a 'Rasta Roko' (road blockade) agitation on August 10.Addressing a press conference, Mehta rejected Sarnaik's allegations against the Mira-Bhayandar Municipal Corporation (MBMC), asserting that the maintenance of internal city roads rests with the civic body, while the Fountain-to-Gaymukh stretch is a state highway under the Maharashtra Government and the Versova-Dahisar Check Naka road falls under the Central Government's jurisdiction.Mehta alleged that in 2024, during the tenure of former MBMC Commissioner Sanjay Katkar, the Fountain-Gaymukh stretch was transferred to the municipal corporation, forcing MBMC to spend nearly 8 crore on maintaining just four kilometres of the state highway.Narendra Mehta said, "MBMC does not have adequate funds even to maintain its own internal roads. Why should the civic body bear the financial burden of repairing a state highway? If the State Government provides the necessary funds, we are ready to undertake the work."TargetingSarnaik, Mehta added, "It is unfortunate that despite being a four-term MLA, he could not ensure the repair of this crucial road in his own constituency. Crores were spent on roads benefiting a private project, but why was the Fountain-Gaymukh Road ignored?"The BJP MLA further claimed that Indian Bank has already sanctioned a 500-crore loan for the concreting of internal roads in Mira-Bhayandar, but the proposal is awaiting final approval from the State Government."Despite repeated follow-ups by MBMC, the proposal has allegedly been stalled due to political pressure. If the government fails to grant approval immediately, the BJP will stage a road blockade at Fountain Hotel on August 10 at 11 am," Mehta warned. Open Challenge to Sarnaik Mehta also threw an open challenge to the Transport Minister over the proposed Regional Transport Office (RTO) in Uttan, BhayandarWest."Nearly a year has passed since the foundation was inaugurated by Minister PratapSarnaik, yet there has been no visible progress. The Minister should tell the people when the project will actually be completed instead of making announcements that remain on paper," Mehta said.With the BJP now taking the issue from the press room to the streets, the political confrontation between Narendra Mehta and PratapSarnaik over infrastructure and road conditions appears set to escalate further in the run-up to the August 10 protest.
