PROTEST OVER 'GLASS PIECE IN FOOD'

After row, Ahmedabad school makes Malala, Anne Frank books 'optional'

DEO slaps fine of Rs 10,000 on school; consultant suspended

Ritu Sharma
Ahmedabad, August 13

AFTER PROTESTS over alleged finding of a glass piece in the meal served to students in an Ahmedabad private school and controversy over teaching out-of-syllabus books including that of Pakistani activist Malala Yousafzai, the school has listed the books as "optional".

Ahmedabad's Anand Niketan School also terminated the services of its consultant, Munazza Shums, an alumna of the school who was working as "curriculum designer and teacher trainer".

Several parents staged protests outside Ahmedabad's Anand Niketan School, Shifa campus, on August 11 after a student allegedly found a piece of glass in the food served at the school a day earlier. Later, parents alleged that the school is "discriminating" against students from a particular religion by forcing them to read books by Nobel Prize-winning Pakistani activist Malala Yousafzai, and German-born Jewish Holocaust victim Anne Frank, among others.

On August 11, several parents protested outside the school a day after a student allegedly found a piece of glass in canteen food.

Following controversy, the District Education Officer (DEO), Ahmedabad, issued a show-cause notice to the school, seeking a clarification on the "glass chip" found in the food.

Later, the DEO also slapped a fine of Rs 10,000 under the ing with all applicable rules and regulations".

On Thursday, Chairman of Anand Niketan Kamal Mangal, in a letter to the Gujarat Education Minister, stated that "we will not be inviting Ms. Munazza Shums for further consultations".

He was responding to allegations that Shums was heading the school and that she had tweaked the curriculum to make Malala Yousafzai and Anne Frank books mandatory for students.

"The report that Munazza Shums is heading the school is totally baseless. The school has never declared her as a 'head of school' in any of its communications... She is an independent consultant who travels across India as well as abroad imparting her knowledge and experience at various other institutions. Moving forward, we will not be inviting Ms. Munazza Shums for further consultations," Mangal said in the letter.

"Of the four books in the Book Club, Anne Frank and Malala Yousafzai's memoir, 'I Am Malala: The Story of the Girl Who Stood Up for Education and Was Shot by the Taliban' have been made optional. Students now have an option to read any of the four books. The same has been communicated to the education department," Kamal Mangal told The Indian Express.

On the termination of services of Munazza Shums, Mangal said, "Since the parents had questioned her role in the school's operations, it was decided to stop taking her services." He also termed the allegation of bias towards some students as "baseless."

Canteen supervisor out

With the post of the school principal lying vacant, the school said it has also initiated the process of appointing an in-charge principal. The school also decided to suspend its canteen supervisor with immediate effect.

"Kitchen and food preparation areas have been thoroughly cleaned and sanitised, a new canteen contract has been awarded and three additional supervisors have been appointed," the school said.

Morbi: Water tank demolition goes wrong, damages house

Express News Service
Ahmedabad, August 13

A CONTROLLED demolition of an old overhead water tank went awry as the structure collapsed near a house, damaging one of its walls, in a Morbi village on Thursday.

No person was injured in the mishap, the village sarpanch said.

The incident occurred around noon at Hirapara village in Tankara taluka of Morbi.

The village panchayat had planned and carried out the demolition of the 25-year-old water tank since it was in a derelict condition.

The decision to bring it down in a controlled demolition was taken because locals feared that it might collapse on its own in severe weather conditions, Praveen Manji Sephar, the sarpanch of Hirapara Gram Panchayat, said.

In a video sourced from the village, the water tank can be seen being tied with ropes. As the bottom of the structure collapses, the tank swings towards a nearby residential colony and comes crashing down on the house closest to it, causing one of its walls to collapse.

Sephar said: "We decided to demolish a 25-year-old unused water tank before it collapsed on its own and hurt somebody. While we were doing it today, it fell in a direction other than intended and hit a house."

Sephar added that the gram panchayat would repair the damage caused to the house owned by farmer Rajni Savji Savani, and the repair would begin on Friday.

Accused of cattle slaughter, 6 of 'Badam Gang' booked under GUJCTOC Act

Express News Service
Vadodra, August 13

PANCHMAHAL POLICE have invoked the Gujarat Control of Terrorism and Organised Crime (GUJCTOC) Act against six alleged members of the "Badam Gang".

The police cited a record of 18 serious offences, including cattle theft and trafficking, illegal slaughter, offences against persons and property, and attacks on

The action was taken following a probe by the Local Crime Branch into the alleged organised criminal activities of the group, police said in a statement issued on Thursday.

Anas Abdulgani Badam, a resident of Godhra, has been arrested in the GUJCTOC case. Police are seeking custody of five other accused through transfer warrants as they are currently lodged in jail in other cases, according to the police.

The five are Nisar Ahmed Abdulgani Badam, Sajid Ilyas Bhamed, Imran Shaikat Dorwa alias Masliya, and Owais alias Junaid Mohammed Hanif Durga.

Police said the gang members have been named in cases registered at different police stations and involved cattle theft, transportation and slaughter, besides serious offences against people.

The six men were individually booked in 29 alleged cases including attempted murder, murder, animal-related offences, theft, threats and rioting.

While Sajid Ilyas was booked in a murder case, the record against Owais alias Junaid includes attempted murder and rioting, police said.

The GUJCTOC case registered at Godhra B Division police station is the third major such action in Panchmahal involving alleged organised cattle crime in recent years. In June, police invoked the law against six members of the Bhopal Gang, which is allegedly linked to 19 cases involving cow slaughter and illegal beef trade.

In February 2022, the Hayat Gang became one of the earliest high-profile cattle-rustling syndicates in the district to face GUJCTOC, with police citing 45 cases over more than a decade, including cow slaughter, animal and vehicle theft, rioting and attacks on police.

'Shrimp worth Rs 550-cr lost in floods': Farmers seek relief package

Kamal Saiyed
Surat, August 13

THE GUJARAT Aquaculture Association has sought a special relief package for shrimp ponds that were destroyed by the recent floods in South Gujarat. It said an estimated 10,000 tonnes of shrimp worth Rs 550 crore, which were ready for harvest, had been destroyed in the floods.

Shrimps farmed on 10,000 acres in South Gujarat are exported to the US, Europe, Central Asia, Japan, and China. The sector generates an annual turnover of Rs 2,500 crore, the association said.

A couple of days ago, the As-

More than 2,600 shrimp ponds in Valsad and Navsari districts have suffered severe damage, said Gujarat Aquaculture Association.

sociation convened a meeting, attended by many shrimp pond owners from Surat, Navsari, Valsad, and Bhauruch districts in South Gujarat, in Surat.

The pond owners shared details of the losses they incurred during the floods on July 20 and 21. The owners reported that floodwater entered their ponds and overflowed. As a result, shrimps ready for harvest in the next few days were washed away, it added.

Association President Suresh Patel told The Indian Express, "Shrimp farming is largely done in Bhauruch, Surat, Navsari, and Valsad districts, and in the coastal areas. Thousands of people are employed by the sector, and over 100 per cent of produce is exported. Four giant processing plants in Surat and Navsari, pack and send the harvested shrimp to the Mumbai port."

After the meeting, the Association requested that the pond members consult their local elected representatives and raise their demand.

In a letter to the Chief Minister, Patel said, "More than 2,600 shrimp ponds in Valsad and Navsari districts have suffered severe damage. Around 10,000 tonnes of shrimp worth Rs. 550 crores have been washed away. The structure of 90 per cent of such ponds has also been damaged."

The letter was also sent to the Prime Minister's Office, Union and state fisheries ministries.

In response to a representation with the requests made by the Valsad aquaculture association, Valsad BJP MP Dhaval Patel wrote to the Chief Minister requesting a relief package for shrimp pond owners.
