Municipal Corporation takes strict action against encroachment in Vartaknagar area

Handcarts, pantapari, tables and sheds removed from Gandhinagar to Nilkanth Road area

Thane, Dinesh Singh:

As per the instructions given by Mayor SharmilaPimpolkar and Municipal Commissioner SaurabhRao to all Assistant Commissioners to make the footpaths of Thane city free from hawkers, the anti-encroachment campaign is going on continuously. On Monday (August 10), a crackdown was carried out in the Gandhinagar-Vasant Vihar Circle-Kashinath Ghanekar Circle to Nilkanth Road area in Ward No. 4 under the jurisdiction of Vartaknagar Ward Committee till late night. In this operation, four handcarts, a leaf stall, four wooden tables and 12 wooden sheds were removed, and action was taken against the handcarts and the footpaths were made free for the citizens.All the public representatives had raised their voices in the general assembly to keep all the footpaths in the city open for the citizens. Due to encroachments by hawkers, citizens have to walk on the roads. The Municipal Corporation's encroachment department took this action as these commercial encroachments, which were illegally erected on the roads and footpaths, were creating obstacles to the movement of citizens.During this operation, which was conducted under the guidance of Encroachment Deputy Commissioner JitendraNikam, Deputy Commissioner Manish Joshi, Dinesh Tayde (Zone-3), Assistant Commissioner Ganesh Chaudhary, along with the Vartaknagar Ward Committee and officers and staff of the Encroachment Department were present.The Municipal Corporation team removed the encroachments with the help of 11 MSF personnel, 14 workers, two tempos and one JCB. During the operation, unauthorized handcarts, pantapari, wooden tables and sheds were removed and the area was cleared.Even after the action in the Vartaknagar area, the municipal administration will continue to inspect and take necessary action on a daily basis to prevent further encroachment on the relevant roads and footpaths. The administration has clarified that the anti-encroachment campaign will continue continuously to keep the roads and footpaths free from hawkers.

per government directives. The painting competition has been conducted in 4 groups up to class 10 and the winning student contestants will be honored on November 14, 2026, i.e. Children's Day.On the day of the children's painting competition, the extension officer from the education department and the center coordinator visited the competition venue and inspired and encouraged the students.
