With Punjab polls around corner, Akali Dal chief Badal calls on PM

IAN S CHANDIGARH

With Punjab elections around the corner, Shiromani Akali Dal (SAD) President Sukhbir Singh Badal on Friday called on Prime Minister Narendra Modi in New Delhi over law and order situation in the state.

Speculations are rife over a pre-poll alliance between both parties, once a two-decade-old coalition partner.

An Akali leader said discussion between PM Modi and Badal was centered around Punjab with Badal raising law and order situation.

"Even PM heard all our concerns," remarked a senior Akali leader.

Cong steps up preparations for Rahul's 'Chhatron Ki Goonj' after venue row ends

Biswajeet Banerjee
PRAYAGRAJ

With the controversy over the venue resolved, the Congress on Thursday intensified preparations for Leader of Opposition Rahul Gandhi's 'Chhatron Ki Goonj' programme in Prayagraj, claiming that nearly two lakh students have registered for the event and over one lakh are expected to attend the interaction at KP Ground on August 8. The party said students and youth from neighbouring districts are also expected to participate in large numbers, while preparations at the venue are in full swing.

The Congress has mobilised its organisational network across Prayagraj and adjoining districts for the event. The party's OBC Department held a meeting to coordinate the movement of

'Beginning of a broader movement'
Congress leaders described the programme as the beginning of a broader movement against alleged irregularities in competitive examinations, rising unemployment and the increasing contractualisation of government jobs.

students to the venue.

The meeting was attended by Congress OBC Department national chairman Dr Anil Yadav, Uttar Pradesh in-charge Rajendra Pal Gautam and state OBC Department president Manoj Yadav, who reviewed mobilisation plans.

Rahul Gandhi is scheduled to interact with students, research scholars and university youth during the programme. The Congress said the discussion would focus on issues such as examination paper leaks, recruitment delays, unemployment and contractual and outsourcing-based employment, which it claimed have deeply affected the younger generation. The event was thrown into uncertainty a day earlier after the Kayastha Pathshala (KP) Trust withdrew permission for the use of the KP College ground despite having earlier accepted the booking and a fee of Rs 51,000. The trust cited a 2025 Allahabad High Court order restricting the ground to educational and sports activities, along with waterlogging following recent rains, as reasons for cancelling the booking.

The Congress strongly protested the decision, alleging that the BJP government was attempting to prevent Rahul Gandhi from interacting with students. The party maintained that the programme would be held regardless of the cancellation, while Rahul Gandhi accused the government of trying to suppress the voice of students and youth.

Nishant asks JD(U) youth workers to reach out to Gen Z voters

Dheeraj Kumar
PATNA

Apparently apprehensive after Jan Suraj Party founder Prashant Kishor's victory in the Bankipur by-poll, Bihar health minister Nishant Kumar on Friday asked JD(U)'s youth workers to reach out to Gen Z voters and make them aware of former chief minister Nitish Kumar's development initiatives over the past two decades.

It is widely believed that Kishor succeeded in garnering support from a significant section of young voters in the recently held Bankipur by-poll, which he won by defeating the BJP candidate by an impressive margin. Political observers claimed that the Gen Z protest at Jantar Mantar in New Delhi against the NEET paper leak had influenced the youth's voting pattern.

Addressing a meeting of party youth workers, Nishant, son of Nitish, said many voters in the 20-25 age group were too young to remember how bad the situation was in Bihar before 2005. He asserted that young people should be informed about the changes brought about during his father's tenure as chief minister.

UP TO DRAFT NEW YOUTH POLICY, SET UP INDEPENDENT YOUTH COMMISSION

Biswajeet Banerjee
LUCKNOW

The Uttar Pradesh government has decided to formulate a comprehensive youth policy aimed at addressing the aspirations and needs of young people in the 16 to 35 age group. The move comes as the government seeks to strengthen engagement with the state's youth by designing policies aligned with their expectations in education, employment, entrepreneurship and personal development.

Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath chaired a meeting with senior officials from the Youth Welfare Department and other departments to discuss the proposed integrated youth policy. He directed officials to establish an independent State Youth Commission comprising experts to monitor, evaluate and review programmes related to youth development before the policy is finalised.

The proposed commission will regularly assess the implementation of youth-centric schemes and provide recommendations to the government. The Chief Minister also instructed all departments to ensure that every eligible young person receives the benefits of government welfare and development programmes.

Officials said the new policy will cover students, sports persons, research scholars, startup entrepreneurs and young professionals.
