About Us Contact Us

Eesanje Group is the most diversified media house and poised to grow exponentially with the following brands: Eesanje, the oldest newspaper, is today also by far the largest-selling daily English newspaper in the State (ABC Circulation of 64,089) and the most widely read (IRS Readership of 1,46,000) with a reputation for being fiercely independent. Established as a Portuguese language newspaper in the year 1900, its English avatar took birth in 1983. In a media space dominated by mining interests, paid news templates, and “closeness” with political parties, Eesanje—whose only interest is the public interest—is the paper people trust. The accuracy of our news reports, all the views that matter, in-depth reportage on the issues of the day, and our award-winning investigations combine to ensure that Eesanje sets the news agenda for Karnataka every morning. Our readership encompasses the entire spectrum of Karnatakans, as the numbers put out by reputed industry bodies such as ABC and IRS validate, from the common man to the decision-maker. In a line, Eesanje is Karnataka. Dainik Eesanje, the daily Marathi newspaper from the Eesanje Group launched in 2012, has in a short span of time become the choice of decision-makers and the emerging Marathi-reading middle class in Karnataka. Dainik Eesanje has established its credibility and has emerged as a significant voice that nobody with a stake in Karnataka can afford to ignore. With innovative editorial features and attention to detail and quality previously not seen in regional language newspapers in the State, Dainik Eesanje is also the first full-colour Marathi daily in Karnataka. Indeed, we wouldn't be immodest in saying this new kid on the block has already carved out a niche for itself. Dainik Eesanje is the latest torchbearer of the Group Motto—all the news and views without fear or favour. The buzz is that our impact on the Marathi reader has been immediate. And this is just the beginning. HCN (Eesanje Cable Network), the Eesanje Group's news and general entertainment channel launched in a small way in 2007, is today poised to become the clutter-breaker in Karnataka's television scene. With a fresh approach towards the issues of the day and a content package which is relevant for the Karnatakan audience, HCN stands out for the direct, citizens-first emphasis in its news and current affairs coverage. HCN's entertainment programming, including innovative game show formats such as Housie, as well as special features on art & culture, lifestyle, fashion, and homes, have developed a dedicated following. Interactive, relevant, credible—HCN, we believe, is the future of television in Karnataka. Website/E-paper: Our website www.EesanjeKarnataka.in and e-paper are the first port of call for the Karnatakan diaspora across the world as well as for tourists and business visitors to the State. From the UK to Canada, the Gulf, and Australia, not to mention other parts of India, Karnatakans keep in touch and keep up with Karnataka through the online newspaper they trust. Junior Eesanje is a weekly newspaper, produced according to the best standards Eesanje is known for, meant exclusively for very young to young children, written and produced for them in a language they understand. It breaks away from the clutter of the buzz of images and text they get online and serves as a paper which is old school and yet fresh. It takes its readers to the simple times when children put pen or pencils to paper to draw, color, write, solve puzzles, and above all, create.
